God Reminds Us Who We Are in Him

God Draws Us to Himself (Hebrews 4:15&16)

For we do not have a high priest who is unable to empathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are—yet he did not sin. Let us then approach God’s throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

We Respond in Unison Prayer of Repentance – Most Merciful God, we confess our sinfulness. We have sought after things that will never satisfy. Precious Jesus, you were tempted and never compromised with the evil one. Forgive us when we do not follow your example. Have mercy on our weakness and forgive our lack faith when we doubt your power to protect us. Restore us and refresh us so that we may walk in your ways and delight in your will. Through the saving power of Jesus we pray, AMEN

WORSHIP NOTES

We welcome you to worship this week. We are glad you are worshipping with us.

In the morning our members will take time for a vote on our proposed building project after the service.

In the morning we continue our sermon series focusing on the life of Abraham as revealed to us in Genesis chapters 12 through 22, as we consider a life walked in faith. This morning we will examine chapter 15, we find Abram asking God a question we sometimes find ourselves asking, we find God and Abram entering into covenant. We will look at the hope we have in God's work in our covenant relationship.

In the evening we invite you to join us as we continue our evening series, looking together at the Jesus' ministry after the sermon on the Mount as we find it recorded for us in Luke. We will open God's Word to Luke 9:10-17, considering Christ's love for those who seek Him and His desire to provide for them in need, how is that we experience a satisfied life in Christ?

We praise God that He has called us to worship Him in joy and in fellowship!
